Call to Confession

Rev. Betty Berghaus

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

God of compassion, in Jesus Christ, you reveal the light of your glory. But we turn away, distracted by our own plans. We confess that at times we speak when we should listen, and act when we should wait. At other times, we fail to speak and act when you call us to do so. Forgive us, Lord. Grant us wisdom to live in your light and to follow in the way of your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, in whose name we pray. Amen. (Silence)

Assurance of Pardon

Gloria Patri #581*

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen. Amen.

Passing of the Peace*

Winter Fox

One: May the peace of Christ be with you.

Many: And also with you.

Please offer a sign of Christ's peace to those around you.

Anthem

Folk Hymn Suite

arr. MacDonald

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in His excellent Word!
What more can He say than to you He hath said,
To you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?

“Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed,
For I am thy God, and I will still give thee aid.
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by My righteous, omnipotent hand.”

I know that my Redeemer lives. (Glory, hallelujah!)
What comfort this sweet sentence gives. (Glory, hallelujah!)
Shout on, pray on! We're gaining ground.
The dead's alive and the lost is found.
Glory Hallelujah! Glory Hallelujah!

How wondrous great, how glorious bright must our Creator be,
Who dwells amidst the dazzling light of vast eternity.

While all the heavenly powers conspire eternal praise to bring,
Let faith in humble notes adore, the glorious Mystery sing.

Prayer of Illumination (Unison)

Rev. Betty Berghaus

God of shining splendor, your voice makes the earth tremble in wonder. Overshadow us with your Spirit so that we may hear your Word and live as faithful disciples and your covenant people; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

We Respond in Faith

Affirmation of Faith (Unison)*

Winter Fox; From A Declaration of Faith

Jesus was God in the flesh. Jesus Christ overthrew evil powers that enslaved and degraded people, yet he made no use of power to protect himself. He healed those who were sick in body and mind, yet he did not avoid pain and suffering himself. He commanded his followers to place loyalty to him above family and country, yet he lived among them as a servant. Jesus taught with authority, challenging many time-honored customs and ideas, yet he submitted to humiliation and death without a word on his own behalf. He forgave sinners, yet he was counted among sinners. We recognize the work of God in Jesus' power and authority. He did what only God can do. We also recognize the work of God in Jesus' lowliness. When he lived as a servant and went humbly to his death, the greatness that belongs only to God was manifest. In both his majesty and lowliness, Jesus is the eternal Son of God, God himself with us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Welcome to Our New Director of Youth Ministry!

The Youth Director Search Committee is excited to announce that we have concluded our search for our new Director of Youth Ministry. We believe everyone will be as thrilled as we are to see a familiar face among our ranks again. Please welcome Merritt Liebman as the newest staff member of HMPC. Merritt comes to us from Wake Forest Presbyterian, where she has served for a year and a half as the Director of Youth Ministries. Please see Merritt's bio below to read more about her history with Hudson and how she was called to youth ministry.

Merritt's first day will be Monday, March 16. Please join us in welcoming Merritt back to HMPC into this important leadership role!

Hi all! I'm Merritt Liebman, and I am thrilled to serve in the role of Youth Director here at Hudson. I grew up at HMPC and am so excited to return in a staff position. My faith has been deeply nurtured by the people of this church, through my time serving on the New Hope Youth Council, through working at conferences at Massanetta Springs and Montreat Conference Center, and through participating in Presbyterian campus ministry at NC State.

My husband, Paul, and I are members of HMPC, and we have two dogs who are not church members but have participated in a pet blessing. For the past few years I have served as Director of Youth Ministries at Wake Forest Presbyterian Church, where my love for youth ministry and sense of calling were affirmed. Prior to that role, I was actively involved here at Hudson as a youth advisor, youth committee member, and chair.

I believe that the youth of our church are the living church right now - not some future version of it. I feel deeply called to nurture their faith, build meaningful relationships, and point out God's presence whenever and however I see God working in their lives. I am incredibly grateful for the opportunity to serve alongside our youth and their families, and come home to this church.

I am looking forward to meeting those of you I do not know, and reconnecting with those I have missed! Thanks be to God for this opportunity, and this place.

The opening line of this hymn was inspired by the three divine attributes listed in 1 Timothy 1:17 (King James Version), and it continues by considering how God's life exceeds our own finite existence. The text is well set to a Welsh melody shaped by many three-note units.

The musical notation for the Refrain is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The notes are: A4 (quarter), E4 (quarter), F#4 (quarter), D4 (half), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), D4 (half), E4 (quarter), D4 (quarter), and E4 (quarter). The chords indicated above the notes are: (G) A, (D) E, (Em) F#m, (C) D, (G) A, (Am7) Bm7, (C) D, (D7) E7, (C) D, and (D) E.

Shine, Je - sus, shine; fill this land with the Fa-ther's glo - ry.

While the reference to Jesus as the Light of the world (John 8:12, 9:5) can be understood generally, this hymn is perhaps best understood as a response to the Transfiguration (Matthew 17:1–8 / Mark 9:2–8 / Luke 9:28–36). This is the most popular of the author/composer's many songs.
