2021 VBS

August 9-13 9 am to Noon

This year we are beyond excited to bring back our week-long VBS program August 9th-13th!

Our passenger cars are filling up and we need conductors and engineers to keep us going. Okay, enough with the train metaphors!

If you have been looking for a chance to bring the good news of Jesus, have fun, and hang out with some awesome children, please consider volunteering to serve as a crew leader, rotation leader (Bible Stories, Science, Recreation!) nursery caregiver, or decor specialist.

Our days will be from 9 am-12 Noon Monday-Friday. Beat the heat as we will be inside since the church is now open safely! Our current policy will be masks required for volunteers and children over the age of 5.

We do not want to turn any child away if we do not have to and our volunteers help us bring the Gospel and the fun to all Sign up here and if you have any questions, contact Rachael McConnell.

Hunger Action

Advocating for an End to Hunger Through an Offering of Letters

This Sunday, June 13 - Please Join Us in the Parlor Following Worship

We will conduct our Offering of Letters with the guidance of Bread for the World, a non-profit organization which advocates for hunger relief through bipartisan legislation.

At our Offering of Letters, the Hunger Action Team will provide letter-writing supplies along with names and addresses of U.S. Senators and Representatives. Bread for the World has provided us information about proposed legislation and sample letter language that we can incorporate. Our Offering of Letters will be dedicated to God just as we dedicate our financial offerings. If you have questions, please contact Carolyn Scott or other members of the Hunger Action Team.

If You're In Town and Able...Come!

Historically the summer has been a time when the church has scaled back on some of its programming and honors the fact that people travel, take vacation and more. But coming off of 15 months of a pandemic where all of our rhythms have been thrown off, it feels strange to do the typical thing. While church programming will take time to gear up as we emerge out of the pandemic, I do think it is important to not delay regaining some of our communal and spiritual rhythms. Maybe the best place to start regaining that rhythm is the following commitment: If my family and I are healthy, able, and in town, we are going to come to worship in-person.

Sunday morning worship is the church's "bread & butter" if you will. Week in and week out it is our largest gathering and more importantly it is that rhythmic place where we praise, confess, receive grace, hear God's Word and respond to it. We get re-centered in intergenerational community. Your presence matters not only for your individual spiritual health, but because it encourages and bolsters the faith of those around you. In worship you are noticed by new and old friends. In worship your singing voice gives confidence to those of us who are less confident in our ability to carry a tune. You elbow or fist bump or bow at the passing of Christ's peace is conveying a profound truth in a physical way. Your presence is seen by newcomers: A full multi-generational sanctuary lets people know we are an alive and vibrant congregation. Your simple greeting remembering a detail about another person's life models hospitality and encourages community.

James G. Kirk in When We Gather: A Book of Prayers for Worship, writes, "A covenant community is a gathering of individuals with a common experience of being called by God and given a purpose. It is characterized by a common loyalty to God and a shared sense of purpose in the world. In the covenant community, the members are related to one another as organs of the body. When one suffers, all are in pain. The body functions best when all members are present and functioning." We understand this better when we are able to be in the same space. So...your presence matters not only for your individual spiritual health, but because it encourages and bolsters the faith of those around you.

I urge you, as we recover from this difficult time as a community to commit to the spiritual discipline and rhythm of communal worship. It will truly be a joy to see you!

Thanks be to God for each one of you.

Allow that word or phrase to prompt a memory from your life, a thought on the passage or a metaphor. 3. What is Christ calling you to through the scripture text? # June Special Offering

Avery County Mission Trip

During June we will be receiving a Special Offering to support the Avery County Mission Trip proceeding this summer from July 18 through July 23 to aid Avery County Habitat for Humanity in the construction of a home. Fifteen individuals, most of whom are retired, have committed to participating in the Mission Trip; and subject to individual circumstances, many are contributing up to $240 to help defray the costs of the group's room and board. Nonetheless, the assistance of the congregation is needed to fully meet these costs this year and, further, to provide the reserve needed to make advance housing reservations for the group next year. You may put your donation in the offering plate, mail your donation to the church, donate online or text to give. Here is how to text to give: Text amount 'avery' to 888-906-0744 (example: 25 avery). If you have not done this before, you will only need to enter your information once.
