Waking Up with the Word

August 24 - 6:30 am

Waking Up with the Word will meet at 6:30 am at the WH Patio. The group studies the scripture text that will be preached on the following Sunday. No previous Bible study experience is needed. The group centers their study around three questions - 1. What is a word or phrase that stands out to you in the text? 2. Allow that word or phrase to prompt a memory from your life, a thought on the passage or a metaphor. 3. What is Christ calling you to through the scripture text? Contact Mac Schafer for more information.

Women at the Well Fall Schedule

Women at the Well begins the fall schedule this month and welcomes women of all ages and stages to join us! The two groups have a different format, time and content.

The weekly group meets Wednesday morning from 9:15-10:30am and uses a particular book chosen each semester as a guide for shared conversation, reflections, and prayer. The monthly group meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at 6:00 pm (sometimes the third Thursday to avoid holidays etc.) and uses a podcast as the basis for discussion on topics of interest. Both groups are wonderful opportunities for women to get to know each other as we discuss the intersection of culture and faith and our own spiritual journeys. Each group met on Zoom until recently and while current plans are for in person meetings, this may be amended to return to Zoom if the Covid Delta variant continues to spread and local numbers continue to rise.

Wednesdays - August 25 - December 8. 9:15-10:30 am HMPC Parlor or Zoom

The weekly group is using Miracles and Other Reasonable Things: A Story of Unlearning and Relearning God by Sarah Bessey. Current participants do not need to re-register. Books may be purchased for $12.00, you may pay online by cash or check to HMPC with Women at the Well notated, or you may get the book on your own. If we are ordering a book for you let us know no later than August 18. Participants in the morning group typically commit to the entire semester.

Thursdays - August 26, September 23, October 21, November 18 and December 16. 6 pm by Zoom
Participants can attend regularly or occasionally and will receive the podcast the weekend before our meeting. Current participants do not need to re-register. For more information or to register for either group beginning with the August meetings contact Debbie Kirk

Presbyterian Pint

August 26 - 7 pm

The men's group will meet on June 24th at 7 pm at Mac Schafer's backyard. This group meets for fellowship and discussion on faith and culture. Contact Mac Schafer for more information.

Session Policy & The Pandemic

This past week the Session instituted two new policies related to the pandemic:

1. In an effort to align with pandemic policies of the City of Raleigh and to protect vulnerable friends and members of HMPC, masks are now required at all times inside the building of HMPC.
2. Beginning August 23rd, the church and preschool staff will be asked to verify their vaccination status with their supervisor. If a staff member or teacher is unvaccinated they will be required to wear a mask at all time while on church property, both indoors and outdoors, and will need to show evidence of a negative test weekly to their supervisor.

Masks remain required in worship on Sunday mornings in the sanctuary. Hand sanitizer and disposable masks are available at every entrance to the sanctuary. Groups can continue to gather outside on church property where masks are optional. We simply ask that you would respect the social distancing needs of those around you.

Thank you for your continued patience and compliance.

Director of Music Ministries

"Use what talents you possess; the woods would be very silent if no birds sang there except those that sang best."

-Henry Van Dyke

Through a whirlwind of happy circumstances and family support, my husband and I have bought a house in a quiet neighborhood in Durham. The neighborhood is full of trees, deer, a variety of wildlife and birds. As I am settling in and enjoying my setting, I remembered the above quote. It is the essence of my philosophy of church music.

There are many blessings which go along with choral singing. One of my favorites is that many voices make a beautiful sound. The quality and power of the sound isn't dependent upon the strongest or most beautiful voice but in the blending of all the voices together.

With church vocal, bell or instrumental choirs the blessings abound. For me, no blessing is greater than the small group atmosphere which is created by regular rehearsals and the sharing of the joys and concerns of our lives.

I am so excited to be here and over the course of the next few weeks I will introduce myself through this newsletter. My hope is that by getting to know me better you will feel even more welcomed into the flourishing music ministry at Hudson Memorial.

Many blessings,
Barbara

A Welcoming Space

Last week the room formerly known as the “John Knox Room” was completed. This is the room at the foot of the new ramp from the sanctuary that empties out onto the first floor hallway. Last year, when preparations for the new ramp were being made, the Session voted to make the John Knox Room a soft seating area. It is now a warm and inviting space for informal conversations, small meetings and hospitality. The room has already been used for interviews, pre-marriage counseling, baptismal preparation, planning memorial services, small committee meetings, receptions, memorial service displays, quiet conversation and meditation.

Last week the final touch to the room were added: Two paintings by local artist Kathy Ammon. One painting is entitled, “Eyes to See” and another specifically commissioned for Hudson this year called, “And Also with You.” These two paintings were donated anonymously in coordination with the 60th Anniversary Capital Campaign team which implemented the re-purposing of this space. We hope members, friends and guests will spend time with these painting. We believe that they speak to our faith and the human journey within community. Below is information on Kathy’s background:

"Kathy Ammon’s paintings are recognized by her expressive style, responsive approach to the figure and universal themes of life, love, and faith. She is an accomplished artist with strong vision for revealing the sacred in human relationships and everyday life experiences. Kathy has worked as a professional artist since 1988, showing and selling her paintings in acrylics and mixed media on canvas, paper, and panel. From 1996-2011, she had a public studio at Artspace of Raleigh NC and enjoyed a large following of supporters, patrons, sales, and exhibitions. She retreated from the public eye in 2012 to her home studio where she found time and freedom to explore new art processes and community experiences. Ammon started Threshold arts studio at Apex UMC in 2014 to create space for herself and others to express the spirit through creative art and faith experiences. Then, between 2016-2019 Ammon’s life shifted dramatically into a new season and impacted her focus and vision for her art. When the winds of change shifted again in 2020 for everyone and everywhere, placing some things on hold or stopping completely, Ammon continued with her artmaking evolving vision and faith. As this new 2021 season unfolds, Kathy plans to share this new work soon, that seems created for these challenging times, along with more opportunity to see, connect, and acquire her work once again."

Hunger Action: Share Your Bounty With Others

Calling all gardeners! Too many tomatoes, zucchini, etc.? Did you know that you can donate what you don't need to the Interfaith Food Shuttle through their Plant a Row for the Hungry program? Plant a Row for the Hungry encourages garden communities and individuals to donate fresh vegetables, fruit, and herbs to people in need. The Food Shuttle is the Plant a Row partner in the Triangle, distributing your home-grown produce to local food pantries, shelters, and other hunger-relief organizations. Just one pound of your fresh produce supplements four meals. We cannot accept produce grown with animal manure not composted to USDA Organic standards or sprayed with pesticides within two weeks of harvest. If you have food from your gardens to share, contact Andrea Mouw armouw@gmail.com You can drop your produce off at her home (near Carroll Middle School) Scott Mouw will take it to IFFS on Fridays.

Amazing Grays First Thursday Lunch

Our fellowship time at lunch out the past three months has been great to see, eat, and share a meal with everyone. However, with the most recent surge in COVID-19 variants, we would not like any of our members to become infected.

After much consideration, we are putting our lunch out on hold. We look forward to the time we can resume our lunch out and other Amazing Grays programs at our church.
