Mac's Meanderings

For One Who Is Exhausted

The other morning I was reading John O'Donohue's To Bless the Space Between Us. He has a section in that book called States of Heart and a blessing "For One Who Is Exhausted." He writes,

When the rhythm of the heart becomes hectic,
Time takes on the strain until it breaks;
Then all the unattended stress falls in
On the mind like an endless, increasing weight.

The light in the mind becomes dim.
Things you could take in your stride before
Now become laborsome events of will.

For me, O'Donohue hits on some of the things I have felt over the past 19 months as we have made our way through the pandemic and numerous other events that have been on our hearts. But thankfully, his blessing doesn't stop with the above words. He continues,

You have traveled too fast over false ground;
Now your soul has come to take you back.

Take refuge in your senses, open up
To all the small miracles you rushed through.

Become inclined to watch the way of rain
When it falls slow and free.
Imitate the habit of twilight.
Taking time to open the well of color
That fostered the brightness of day.

Draw alongside the silence of stone
Until its calmness can claim you.

Be excessively gentle with yourself.

As we enter the fall, still in cultural chaos and unpredictability, may the Spirit nudge you to shift gears so you can notice, once again, what is provided by the One greater than yourself.

You are not alone,

Extra Lego Pieces?

Starting this fall, the Hudson Sunday School program will use a curriculum using Lego called "Building Faith Brick by Brick." Here's where you come in: everyone has LEGO! And we need them! Whether your LEGO pieces never get used OR your LEGO pieces never get put away OR you've run out of space to store your LEGO pieces, our Hudson Sunday school program has a solution. Bag them up or box them up and bring them to church. We'll sort them by color, shape and size and create individual kits for our kiddos! Thank you!

Adult Faith Formation Opportunities (aka The Gathering) Sundays 9:30-10:20am begin September 12

We are grateful for the many virtual faith formation opportunities that are ongoing and we are also excited about the long awaited return to some in person offerings, especially on Sunday mornings! All adults who would like to gather in person for fellowship, consideration of Christian discipleship grounded in the teachings of scripture, and discussion of current events are invited to join one of the three available offerings. Topics and formats will vary depending on the participants and leadership. As we gauge your interest and availability we will add to/amend these offerings accordingly for the fall semester.

- Offering 1 (aka the John Knox Class) will meet in the south end of Westminster Hall, masks required. Nancy Law will begin the semester sharing a favorite Psalm as the basis for discussion of its application to our daily lives. Coordinators: Mike and Nancy Law
- Offering 2 (aka the Mixed Adults Class) will meet in the Parlor, masks required. This group has lively conversations based in Scripture, about various books, and using media sources that challenges us and is led by a team who will present either a series or one off topics to help explore and understand our faith in our daily life. Coordinators/Leaders: Ron Ash, Jimmy Hulsey, and Susan Grigg
- Offering 3 will meet outside at the Labyrinth/Fire Pit area on the north end of our campus. Those who would like join others for his informal time of reconnecting over coffee (provided) will want to bring a lawn chair, masks are not required outdoors. Coordinators Susan Bradshaw and Lindsey Crone.

COVID 19

Hudson's Current Policies

The below policies have been set or reviewed by Session, the COVID-19 Sub Team, Personnel Committee or the Hudson Memorial Preschool Board. All below policies are subject to change.

- Church staff can work from the office or at home.
- For preschool drop off, no parents come inside the building.
- The preschool is following NCDHHS tool kit and guidance.
- Groups of any size can gather outside without masks. Eating outside on church property is permitted.
- Masks are required at all times inside the church building. Exceptions to this are:
 - Vaccinated speakers, soloists and small singing groups in worship who are appropriately socially distant from the congregation.
 - Staff who are working alone in their office.
- Sunday worship children's message volunteers must wear masks when giving their talk because the children are not socially distant from the speaker.
- Church and preschool staff must verify their vaccination status with their supervisor.
 - If a staff member or teacher is unvaccinated they are required to wear a mask at all times while on the church property, both indoors & outdoors.
 - Unvaccinated staff and teachers must show their supervisor a weekly negative test to come to work at the church or preschool.
- Groups are not allowed to eat together inside the church buildings. The exception to this rule is preschool children have lunch and snack time in their class bubble.

Adult Faith Formation Brown Bag with Pastor Mac

Brown Bag Lunch will begin a six session series on Being Reformed: Faith Seeking Understanding, Confession of Belhar on Monday, September 13th at noon, location to be determined. The Belhar Confession emerged from South Africa as a witness of Christian faith against the sins of racism and focuses on major themes of unity, reconciliation, and justice in the context of the church's Trinitarian belief.

Explore what it means to be a confessional Church and to meet and confess our faith in the face of racism in its various forms. This confession was added to the PC(USA) Book of Confessions just a few years ago. Mac has ordered the curriculum, please let him know via email if you would like to participate in the study. Books are available in the Karl Hudson Room for $7.00. You may pay online here - Faith Formation Books.

Seeing the Word

This monthly small group comes together for bible study and discussion on the third Monday of the month. It is next meeting on Monday, September 20th at noon, location to be determined. This group uses the St. John's Illuminated Bible to discuss a scripture using a visual image.

The Saint John's Bible is the first completely handwritten and illuminated Bible commissioned by a Benedictine abbey since the invention of the printing press. Beginning in 1970, master calligrapher Donald Jackson expressed in media interviews his lifelong dream of creating an illuminated Bible. Following a Saint John's University-sponsored calligraphy presentation at the Newberry Library in Chicago in 1995, Jackson discussed a handwritten Bible with Fr. Eric Hollas, former executive director of the Hill Museum & Manuscript Library at Saint John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota. Between 1996 and 1997, Saint John's explored the feasibility of the Bible project, Jackson created first samples, and theologians developed the illumination schema. The Saint John's Bible was officially commissioned in 1998 and funding opportunities were launched. The public was introduced to the project in 1999 and production was completed in 2011, with the final word penned in May 2011 and touch-up work completed by December 2011. The Saint John's Bible is divided into seven volumes and is two feet tall by three feet wide when open. The Bible is made of vellum, with 160 illuminations. Pastor Mac has just begun looking at New Testament Illuminations with the group. If new people would like to join the group this fall, all are welcome! Please contact Pastor Mac if you'd like to be added to the distribution list.

Faith Formation for Men Presbyterian Pint

Presbyterian Pint will begin a six session series on Being Reformed: Faith Seeking Understanding, Theology For Presbyterians. This study focuses on what the Reformed and Presbyterian traditions have believed in the past and ways key theological understandings matter in our Christian lives in the church today. Theological issues include the Bible, God, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit. Being Reformed: Faith Seeking Understanding is a series of biblically based mini-courses that provides adults with a foundational understanding of the Reformed faith.

Each six-session study--written by well-known and respected scholars--features Scripture, prayer, in-depth commentary, and questions for reflection. Each study addresses its subject from a Reformed theological perspective. This series will begin on Thursday, September 23rd at 7 p.m., location to be determined Pastor Mac has ordered the study guide. Please let him know if you'd like to participate and he will get you the study guide Books are available in the Karl Hudson Room for $7.00. You may pay online here - Faith Formation Books.

Waking Up with the Word

Waking Up with the Word is a long running bible study for men. Two Tuesdays a month it meets by ZOOM and two Tuesdays it meets in-person on the Westminster Hall Patio. The group uses an ancient bible study process called Lectio Divina. We look at the passage that will be preached on the upcoming Sunday. The study revolves around three questions:

- What is a word or phrase that stands out to you?
- Allow that word or phrase to develop into a memory from your life, a thought on the passage or metaphor
- What is Christ calling you to through the passage?

No previous bible study experience is needed. It is a great group of guys who are welcoming and wise in their comments. For our in-person meetings coffee and bibles are provided. If you have questions or would like to be added to the email distribution list, please contact Pastor Mac.

Faith Formation for Women

Women at the Well Fall Schedule

Women at the Well welcomes women of all ages and stages to join us! The two groups have a different format, time and content.

The weekly group is using Miracles and Other Reasonable Things: A Story of Unlearning and Relearning God by Sarah Bessey.

The monthly group meets on the fourth Thursday of each month at 6:00 pm (sometimes the third Thursday to avoid holidays etc.) and uses a podcast as the basis for discussion on topics of interest. Current podcast discussions include Kate Bowler, Will Willimon, Brené Brown and Krista Tippett.

Both groups are wonderful opportunities for women to get to know each other as we discuss the intersection of culture and faith and our own spiritual journeys. Each group met on Zoom until recently and while current plans are for in person meetings, this may be amended to return to Zoom if the Covid Delta variant continues to spread and local numbers continue to rise.

Director of Music Ministries

A Note from Barbara Loehr-Fox

In finishing up this brief look into the roots of my ministry, I thought I would share how church music became important to me. I can not remember a time when religious music was not a part of my life. In my teen years, it moved from something I did to something that was a part of me. Many times, I experienced tears welling up in my eyes or goosebumps forming on my skin during songs I was either listening to or singing. During my master's study, a visiting professor put those feelings into words I could understand. He called it the "Special World of Music" and was convinced that once people entered it, they never wanted to leave. Therefore, it was not surprising that after I graduated with my master's that January, I accepted my first job at a church. Up to that point, my life plan included a doctorate, lots of performing and ultimately teaching at the college level. However, once I entered ministry, I never wanted to leave. I felt I had found my niche.

In that first church, I was the Associate Director of Music, Director of Christian Education and by default the Director of Youth Ministries. It was baptism by fire because I did not feel qualified to do any of those ministries and because the responsibilities exceeded anything one person could do. It was perfect for me! If that experience did not send me packing nothing afterwards would. I even started a doctorate degree a few years later, trying to get back into my original life plan. What I found out was that the degree and plan no longer seemed important to me. My path was set.

Through the years, I have been given blessings upon blessings. I have felt the presence of God through many wonderful people and experiences. Each church renewed my resolve and broadened my ministry. It is with this sense of vocational calling and a feeling of deep gratitude that I begin my time with you.

Be sure to introduce yourself to me and prayerfully consider how you can become a part of the vital music ministry here.

Many blessings,
Barbara

Carol Yeargin to Retire Sunday Morning November 1st Childcare Workers

Carol Yeargin has faithfully served as Hudson Memorial Presbyterian Church's organist since 2007. In her communications to Pastor Mac Schafer she said, "I have truly enjoyed and sincerely appreciate the support and encouragement provided to me during my 14 years as part of the music ministry. The positive and professional atmosphere created by staff, choir, and congregation will be cherished. While I look forward to enjoying my retirement, I will certainly miss being part of the Hudson team and trust our friendships will last long into the future." Carol & Pastor Mac had been quietly communicating about the possibility of her retirement over the past year. Carol was committed to helping Hudson transition to a new Director of Music Ministries, before making her announcement.

We are deeply grateful for Carol's 14 years of service. She has deepened our congregations ability to worship on Sundays, at weddings, in memorial services and more. Her playing, whether it be organ or piano, has supported the choir and congregation and given us all the confidence to sing boldly. Her preludes, postludes and offertory pieces have caused us all to pause and meditate on God's goodness in the midst of a busy and frantic world.

Carol has been actively playing organ and piano for Sunday worship in churches since the age of 16. Her retirement date is scheduled for November 1st. We are thrilled to have several more months to celebrate the gifts with which God has blessed her. Thanks be to God for Carol Yeargin!
