Hudson Memorial Presbyterian Church

Foundation

Hudson Memorial Foundation

Hudson Memorial Foundation, Inc. is a charitable foundation which receives gifts and bequests to further the work and outreach of Hudson Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Purpose

- To cultivate memorial gifts, bequests, and other contributions for extending the ministry, mission and outreach of the church.
- To develop genuine concern among all people for the needs and salvation of others.
- To encourage Presbyterians and others to plan long-range commitments to the life and work of the church.
- To provide a means for contributing to the church of the future.

Foundation Objectives

- To provide a vehicle for members and friends to make contributions of a permanent nature.
- To invest and administer gifts in a responsible and prudent manner.
- To expand the ministry of HMPC at home and abroad.
- To encourage greater Christian stewardship among members and friends of HMPC.

Plans for Giving

The foundation receives contributions from the following sources:

- Designated or undesignated gifts, including cash, real estate, personal property, stocks and bonds
- Bequests of all types of property by will.
- Life insurance proceeds.
- Memorial fund contributions in the name of loved ones, one's self or families.
- Permanent endowment fund contributions specifically restricted in use.
- Gifts which provide life income and/or savings on income and estates taxes, such as:
 - Charitable Remainder Unitrust.
 - Charitable Remainder Annuity Unitrust.
 - Pooled Income Funds.
 - Remainder interest in gifts and annuities.
 - Other sources and arrangements according to the donor's desires. These are subject to the Foundation's by-laws.

A Final Gift

Being a Christian is, in large part, being a good steward of what God has given us. Yet one of the most important opportunities for stewardship is too frequently forgotten or ignored. By making a final gift, a bequest, we make a powerful statement about the purpose and intent of our lives. In so doing, we direct our resources toward continuing God's work, far beyond the boundaries of our own lifetime.

- The Foundation urges everyone to consult their lawyer, trust officer or financial advisor about bequests, preparation of living gifts, and estate planning.
- Gifts to the Foundation may have beneficial tax results.
- The Foundation will not solicit contributions in connection with HMPC's annual giving program.
